

OVERVIEW

LEED (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design) is an international Green Building certification standard preferred by global organization and from which many regional green building certification systems evolved from and this 2 day seminar covers a detailed overview of every Prerequisite and credit in one of the most popular certification, the LEED Core and Shell Version 3 (2009) and some overview of what can be expected in upcoming Version 4

OBJECTIVES

At the end of this 2-day program, participants will have a good understanding of the following:

- Global Green Building Movement
- Why Build Green
- What is a Green Building and its components
- What is LEED
- Green Design Focus – The site / Water/ Energy / Materials / Indoor Environment Quality

WORKSHOP OUTLINE

- Global Green Movement
- Why Build Green
- What is a Green Building
- Green Building Design Focus
- Certification process

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- Middle Management
- Project Management personnel who have a role in sustainability management in the organization
- Anyone who have managing new Green Building projects within their organization.