

MENTOR MENTEE PROGRAM: BRINGING OUT THE BEST IN YOUR MENTEE

INTRODUCTION

Top-notch, high-performing and contemporary organizations in Malaysia and worldwide know that a company is only as good as its leaders. Organizations go through various stages of change and development in terms of skills and knowledge is also expected from their leaders and mentors. Gaps in the experience, knowledge, attitudes, skills, aspirations and behaviours create a need of outstanding leadership skills in companies these days.

Employees will not likely stretch to their full potential without dedicated mentors that inspire, energise and facilitate them to reach greater heights. Unlike conventional training, the focus of this programme is on developing mentoring skill sets, and not purely on the theoretical aspects of the subject. In today's corporate world, the primary differentiation between an average mentor and an excellent mentor is leadership through well-programmed language, and that is
