

SUPPLY CONTRACT MANAGEMENT

OVERVIEW

In businesses, especially the global front, there exists a critical agenda across the strategic level focusing on a 3V's contractual undertaking. The visibility, viability and versatility elements of all contract management must be embraced between the "contract-owner", the "contract-executioner" and "contract-beneficiary".

This ensures a sustaining framework of business advantage, without possible collusion and a shared common goal achievement success.

OBJECTIVE

This is a very comprehensive course and covers:

- ❖ Learning the methodology of strategizing contract management phases from situation, objective and execution.
- ❖ Empowering the knowledge and skill in techniques and tools of contract management.
- ❖ Managing the relational and transactional value of contract management for more synergistic growth.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

- ❖ All executives and managers in Finance, Administration, Sales, Control, Planning, Procurement and Distribution.
- ❖ All entrepreneurs and proprietors keen to know about the businesses contractual interpretation and implication.
