

DIGITAL ERA-LEADERSHIP

AVAILABLE FOR OFFLINE & ONLINE

Management and Business Series

OVERVIEW

Some of your current leadership bench will be unable to acquire a new mindset. They may need to be replaced with more digitally capable leaders.

Lead for the future of the organization. Nurture and develop leaders as much as those running the legacy business. New leaders will not only require a technical mindset, but also the imagination and vision of how technology can enable their organization's competitive position.

Foster a digital ecosystem for leaders to thrive. This includes new approaches to learning, rewards, use of space and elimination of hierarchies.

OBJECTIVE

Anticipating and responding strategically to the VUCA competitive environment – a Blue Ocean Shift

Understanding work behaviors through the Colored Brain Communications Inventory

Understand the Harvard Business Review Team Chemistry system that identifies four primary work styles and related strategies for accomplishing shared goals

Nurturing your leadership prowess and amalgamating Team Chemistry
