INFORMATION

INTRODUCTION

Accounts payable departments handle processing checks, pay-outs, filing backup paperwork, fulfilling check requests, managing vendors and keeping track of cash flow through accounting software. Accounts payable training is designed to provide best practices for accounts payable executives, managers, directors, and controllers. The training program is presented in an engaging, interactive, hands-on style, and is led by an accounts payable management expert. This course provides practical information on accounts payable processes and procedures for utilizing best practices in accounts payable and involves educating you on these tasks and how they are related to the overall accounting department.

AUDIENCE

Managers of Accounts Payable departments as well as AP staff, clerks, and specialists, who wish to advance their career and professionals in accounting and finance who work closely with Accounts Payable.
