MINDSET TRANSFORMATION FOR MANAGERS & LEADERS USING NLP

COMFORI SDN BHD

Objectives

- Clear of their life purpose
- Able to align this life purpose with your personal and work goals
- Displaying powerful, positive outlook for life and work
- Re-wiring your brains to be better thinkers and leaders
- Passionate about success at work
- Able to solve problems by thinking creatively
- Higher staff morale, peak performance, productivity and profitability (3 Ps)
- Able to drive change and be a highly innovative leader

In this workshop, the participants will uncover and eliminate their current negative mindset, behaviours, attitudes, values and fears that stop them from achieving and enjoying the best rewards organization like yours could offer them. And it will reinforce or remind your team about the importance of living their dreams, instead of “living in their dreams”, and results they want in their life. To instill and install values, mindset, principles and perspective of top achievers versus mediocre achievers.
